Final: As I kneel before you

Gloria: Mass of St Thomas – David Thorne

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heav'nly King, almighty God and Father,

We worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,

Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us:

You are seated at the right hand of the Father; receive our prayer.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

For you alone are the holy one, you alone are the Lord,

You alone are the most high, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,

In the glory of God the Father.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Sanctus/Benedictus:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest. David Thorne

Agnus Dei:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace. David Thorne

Hymn: In stillness come before the Lord

- In stillness come before the Lord,
To bow your head in prayer.
His Spirit moves around us now
His light shines everywhere.
He heals our hearts, uplifts our souls
He cleanses us from sin.

Let his light grow inside our hearts
To shine bright from within.

2 In stillness as our Lord did pray
When at his darkest hour,
Let us be still to hear his word,
And feel his mighty power,
Heads bowed in reverence to such light,
As leaves no shadows there.
For with the Lord who knowest all
Our hearts and souls are bared.

3 In stillness listen for his word;
His love our souls doth feed.
For those who come to him, he will
Fulfil our every need.
Lord help us to do as you ask
In this, our earthly life,
That we may come at last to you
And live in heaven's light.

Hymn: As I kneel before you

1 As I kneel before you,
As I bow my head in prayer,
Take this day, make it yours
And fill me with your love.

Refrain

*Ave Maria, gratia plena,
Dominus tecum, benedicta tu.*

2 All I have I give you,
Every dream and wish are yours,
Mother of Christ, mother of mine,
Present them to my Lord.

Refrain

3 As I kneel before you,
And I see your smiling face,
Ev'ry thought, ev'ry word
Is lost in your embrace.

Refrain

4 Your sweet love surrounds me,
In all that I say or do,
Show me the way, this and each day,
To live as pleases you.

Refrain

5 Anywhere life takes me,
Any time I feel alone,
I need not fear, for you are near,
Loving me as your own.

Refrain

6 As I kneel before you
And your love lifts up my heart,
So may I know how—to go
To live a better part.

Refrain

First Reading: Wisdom of Solomon 1. 13 - 15, 2. 23 - 24

God did not make death, and he does not delight in the death of the living. For he created all things so that they might exist; the generative forces of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them, and the dominion of Hades is not on earth. For righteousness is immortal. For God created us for incorruption, and made us in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his company experience it.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 8. 7 - 15

You excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something—now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written, 'The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.'

Gospel: Mark 5. 21 - end

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered round him; and he was by the lake. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.' So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, 'If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.' Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' And his disciples said to him, 'You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, "Who touched me?"' He looked all round to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.' While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, 'Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?' But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, 'Do not fear, only believe.' He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, 'Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, 'Talitha cum', which means, 'Little girl, get up!' And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Post Communion Prayer:

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by your governance, that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Hello Children Where is Mary Mouse hiding today?

We welcome everyone to this church and particularly families and their children. We are all children of God no matter what our age, and young children are our future. There are books, colouring sheets and pens provided in the children's corner which they are encouraged to use. If as a member of the congregation you find noise distracting, do please come forward and sit in the front pews, away from the children's corner.

Sunday Club meets on the first Sunday of each month in church then to the community room for a story and activities. For details contact Gillian, Gillian.pett29@gmail.com We are also looking for helpers on an occasional or regular basis.

INTERCESSIONS:

Please refer any pastoral concerns for members of the congregation or members of the local community to any member of the Ministry team including our Co-ordinator for Pastoral Services, Mrs Frances Simms. Please pray for the sick, frail, housebound and those in care. Please let the priest in charge know about all cases of sickness and others for whom we should pray. Intentions left in the loose leaf book at the back of the North Aisle will be offered each week at the Parish Communion. If you prefer, you can write your prayer intention on one of the tags provided and hang it on the prayer tree at the back of church, or light a votive candle.

Cloakroom facilities are available in the Community Room during church services.

Gift Aid Donations We welcome all donations from visitors and there are Gift Aid envelopes at the back of church. If you pay tax we can reclaim 25p for every pound you donate to the Church at no cost to yourself, if you have completed the declaration on the envelope. For further information, or to join the planned giving scheme, please contact Mrs. Ann Seaman mobile no. 07710 452647; email jannsmith_2@hotmail.com

ST. MARY'S GREAT SHELFORD – WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Marriage this week: Please remember Deok Jang and Jungmi Graham Leigh in your prayers today as they prepare for their marriage at St Mary's on Thurs. 5th July at 2pm.

Cambridge City Foodbank: Our monthly collection takes place today, Sunday, 1st July. All donations are appreciated and a list of the items most urgently needed can be found on the website - <https://cambridgecity.foodbank.org.uk/give-help/donate-food/>

This Sunday - Service Cover: Simon will be presiding at Weston Colville and West Wrattling this morning.

General Synod: I will be attending the next Group of Sessions of General Synod which is being held at York University from Fri. 6th - Tue. 10th July.

Synod has a very full agenda and will be covering the challenging topic of Safeguarding, in the light of the current national enquiry. We will also have debates on the ethics of nuclear weapons, climate change, and the governance of Cathedrals.

Could I please ask your prayers for all of us as we engage in these important conversations; for openness to the Spirit and for grace to hear the views of others with respect and compassion.

The Pilgrim house group: We shall be meeting as usual on Tuesdays at 7.30pm and continue with our book 'Something More' by John Pritchard.

Anyone is welcome to attend and it does not matter if you do not have a copy of the book as we can share and each week is self-contained.

Gt & Lt Shelford Primary School Retirements: The school will be saying 'farewell' to three very long serving members of staff at the end of this term - Mrs Evans as Head Teacher, Mrs Jenkins as Reception class teacher and Mr Paduano as Year 6 class teacher. All three colleagues have served the school for just over fifty years combined, which is a considerable contribution. If you wish to make a contribution to the retirement presentation fund, then please do this through the school PTA - details on the school website.

Faculty Notice: The Faculty notice for the 'laying up' of the local Royal British Legion branch standard in the Lady Chapel is on display in the porch. The details of the proposals are available for inspection at the rear of the church.

Alms Giving 2018: The alms on the first Sunday of each month are donated to Shelford School. The alms for the remaining Sundays in July will be going to SSYI. Alms can be gift aided provided your giving is in an envelope marked 'Alms' and with your PIN. Alms not in envelopes should be placed in the alms bowl as you come into church. This stands on the offertory box at the back of church, near the back pew.
